

Yuvbir Singh, Vice President, Global Locomotive Operations, GE Transportation

Yuvbir Singh is the Vice President for Global Locomotive Operations for GE Transportation. In this role, he is responsible for the overall global locomotive operations strategy.

He previously served as the General Manager of Engineered Systems at GE Water & Process Technologies, where he oversaw a global team that developed and delivered proven solutions that comprise of an extensive portfolio of projects, products and service offerings. Prior to this role, he served as P&L leader for various portfolios within the GE Water business, and led business development for GE Power & Water. He also held business integration and application engineer roles since joining GE in 1995.

Yuvbir received an Engineering degree in Electronics from the University of Pune, India.